MICHAEL W. DOBBINS
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT.
David E. Smith
v.
Publishers Clearing House LLC

Case Number - 08-C-2413
Honorable Judge, Dow, JR.

Motion for Recovery, Judgment

Some of us believe in the Trinity of God ' God The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit . And some folks think three is a good number . Plaintiff David E. Smith has 3 Rights to Sue and 3 Causes of Action against Publishers Clearing House and three contracts sign by Plaintiff and return to PCH . Smith signed and return papers to office of PCH two or three different times for each Exhibit it's possible more papers will be sign before the complaint is all over and the dust settle, when the battle is all over we will shout for joy.

When I look at Exhibit ( 1 ) $3-5 million dollars I think of the many needs I have for money.
Smith fort hard for no( 2 ) $5,376,600.00 I have seen in the papers & TV people win big.
Wife and I can dance ( 3 ) $13,5- million dollars or more can have a good time with family , love ones.

The most important thing to know about a lawsuit is whether the person bringing it has the right to do so, the right to sue is call a cause of action. if party doesn't have at least one legitimate cause of action i.e. at least one legal right to file his lawsuit. The plaintiff wins. Causes of action arise from breaches of duty for example a contract creates a duty. if the other side breaches the contract, the cause of action is for breach of contract. Everyone has a duty to be careful around others , breach of the duty to be careful is called negligence.

(of)

Exhibit number four is in support three listed above . For the three exhibits here-in listed I received three Bullentins and with each Bulletin carry many papers all in the same envelop, from Publishers Clearing House's Address 101 Winners Circle, Port Washington New York, 11050. To , David E. Smith 6546 South Stewart Avenue Chicago, Illinois 60621 .

The Bulletin contain much information about the contract and papers for me to sign and return to P.C.H. and orders was for me fill out papers, answer questions, not make. on copies, and time limit set when these documents had to be back in their office. The contract said what the Odds of winning were.

The only way I knew that I had been Selected from many entries I return to Publishers Clearing House LLC
101 Winners Circle Port Washington
New, York
11050

Over a year and after I for-got I sent the Three Exhibits above . I notices in the mail. and I sign papers, Having my name & address, and I began to see as Exhibit ( 4 ) my name on each stamp. contract give PCH the right to use my name in their business, but I am yet waiting for breached contract pay.

JUDGMENT IN A CIVIL CASE

V.

Case Number 08 C 2413

Publishers Clearing House,LLC

- 11 Jury Verdict.This action came before the Court for a trial by Jury.The issues have been tried and the jury rendered it's verdict.
- 11 Decision by Court.This action came to trial or hearing before the Court grants Defendant Publishers Clearing House,LLC's motion for summary judgment. but before that grant,The issues have been tried or heard and a decision has been rendered.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Court grants Defendant Publishers Clearing House LLC's motion for summary judgment (6) Plaintiff's motion (23) is denied as moot,and the Court enters judgment in favor of Defendant PCN and against David E,Smith on all claims.

$ 101.91 Purposes of Mootness Doctrine

The Supreme Court has long held that "federal courts are without power to decide question that can't affect the rights of litigants in the case before them. if a case is found to be moot,it is assumed that the rights of the litigants can no longer be affected by a judicial decision.

To a extent,the theoretical foundation of the concept of mootness stems from constitutional precepts .

UNITED STATES V.Chevron USA .,Inc., 186 F3d 644.646 (5th Cir.1999 (production of documents in response to subpoenas and civil investigation demands did not moot appeal from order compelling compliance ,given continuing disputes regarding governing protective order and differences between sets of documents and protections offered by subpoenas and civil investigation demands).

Randolph v. Rodgers , 170 F.3d 850,856-857 (8th Cir.1999) (hearing-impaired inmate's suit for injunctive relief based on failure to provide sign language interpreter was not mooted by inmate's transfer because suit asserted claims directly against state department of correction which controlled both prisons and requisite funding).

3.1 Case not moot if plaintiff retains some personal stake.

Plaintiff retains Causes of Action for breach of contracts. The most important thing to know about a lawsuit is whether the person bringing it has a right to do so. The right to sue is called a cause of action. If a 'party' doesn't have at least one breach of duty / legal right to file his lawsuit Plaintiff win / or defendant win.

David E. Smith holds over three signed agreements breached contracts by The Publishers Clearing House LLC ,. this is legitimate cause of action .i.e. $ 101.92 Issue Can Be Raised at Any Time.

Any party may raise the issue of mootness at any time .! Further it is the court's duty to raise and decide the issue on its own motion if facts come to its attention suggesting mootness , even if both parties are silent on the subject 2.

The Plaintiff believe that defendants have no cause of action against him, they are only trying to use whatever laws that they can get away with to block Smith from receiving his rightful pay.

Defendants said ,D. Smith didn't say this ,Smith didn't say that he was signing with Vollmer case for 411.72, this is lie. if they can't prove what they said to be true ,Plaintiff win, they have the burden.

Exhibit (A) is what Smith filed for., in Southern Illinois amount $5,376,600.00.

Also the court can see the copy of front of the envelope with $10-Million Dollar Agreement by Smith about 2/19/07 and signed by Daniel, Daniel treasurer of Publishers Clearing House LLC. And copy of $3-5 Million Dollars Won by Smith.

(the agreement were signed by Daniel and Smith and others ) Feb.-19-2007 and both cases now hung in moot.
